

You see the miracles that I have witnessed so far are miracles that only I would rejoice about and be glad to receive. Miracles that had to do with my life. However the miracles that are coming are the miracles that will get everybody's attention. God doing for those who are reading my books what He has done for me. Miracles from the Royal Priesthood coming down from heaven manifesting themselves into tangible. Because we live in a world of people who are interested in what you have that they can see. Joel Osteen said one time “ some won't believe it until they can see it,” then he said “ and that is okay.”

I take God at His word. What He said I literally believe. This is how I believed as a child but was discouraged from believing this way. However being an adult I say what goes with this temple, with this church. My momma and them did their job. Now it is left to me to take what I could use from what they passed down to me and scrap the rest. Because not everything they said was true. It was true for them but we are all individuals and God has a separate plan and purpose for all of us. So the first thing that I do that is different from how they believed is I take Him at His word. When He said to “ seek ye first the kingdom of God and all of His righteousness and all of these things will be added.” I don't gamble, make bets, go to bingo, buy scratch offs. none of that I wait on Him. I wait on Him doing His will. I get busy building the Kingdom of God on the earth. I preach the gospel. He has given me the gifts of the spirit. Seeing He has given me the gift to preach and the gifts of God are non revocable. They are here and I put these gifts to use. I let Him care about my needs and don't worry about what I need and what I want. Everybody knows this is the order of God. And what got me to this revelation of knowing I have the gift to preach, heal the sick and raise the dead? Basically being a blessing is, for 1 I sup at the communion element table. 2. I serve others following the order that King Jesus instituted right before He was about to suffer. 3. I give the tenth, following the order that Melchizedek and Father Abrahm did coming back from the battle over his nephew Lot. and 4. Last but certainly not least I praise and pray. King David instituted praise and prayer among the responsibilities of the Levites This system will work I believe for whatever field you desire to be in. However, It may seem like you missed it and it's too late. Because just take me for instance I shouldn't even be in the right frame of mind to share an encouraging word to anyone. I found out what I was made of. I am a man after God's own heart. The reason I have gone through what I have been through was to be able to institute righteousness and praise amongst those who have given in to the circumstances they were surrounded by growing up. The four principles are what the Lord instituted for me to do after He had gotten my attention when He suggested that I leave school and follow Him. I am not the only one, I am not sure how many want to be preachers however. But just look at it like this if God would take me from the rubbish of my past and raise me up to institute righteousness and praise amongst the remnant, not just the remnant but amongst the rebellious. In other words the heathen or the thug how much greater can he restore your dreams? Because this is what I wanted from God I wanted to be a preacher when I was a kid, and as an adult. So what got me to this place was following the 4 principles. Of again, 1 receiving communion 2 serving others 3 giving the tithes and 4 praising and praying. So if you would be willing to do the same I believe He will restore your dreams as well. He is the redeemer of the time. It's what He does. Don't be intimidated even if you'd have to go back to school to do it. Even if you are an adult and still in the dark about your purpose that is okay too. What He has given you and me is the promise, was for us to pull it off this time. What I received by leaving school and following God and practicing these four principles; is something that I needed that I had no idea I was lacking, was a foundation. By practicing these things being steady and faithful in these practices, I have a foundation now on the Rock. Now whatever I put my hands to do will prosper, it will work. Thanking Him and praising Him because He put the promise in me insures me putting my hands to the right things.¹² What man is he that feareth the LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose (Psalms 25:12 KJV) He built me to be a church. Literally, I am a church. Having the willingness to allow God to lead me not having a clue as to what He was doing or where He was leading me. Just staying steady and practicing these four principles in my life, led me into my purpose. God is so good. As I began to write I didn't know where it was taking me. I didn't know it was the gift of the preacher in me at work. I didn't know the gifts of God were irrevocable. I had heard that scripture before in other translations so I'd pass by it with a minimum of concern. I knew I still wanted to do it but I had no idea I was still a preacher. So, when I sat down to write it was so easy and refreshing I just thought to myself God really helped me to articulate that wow thank you God. then I would pursue God based upon what was going on in my life. I was in trouble and seeking God. then He would deliver me then I would have a revelation about something that was totally not even involving the trouble that He had gotten me out of. The first book I wrote You've got this, is so far away and different from what I am really ministering about. Although it is still an important message for people who may have addiction in their stories. The truth however is I have never been an addict. The things I write about are mostly for believers and to believers. Now given I may be a little bit rough around the edges. But I like that about me So yeah, but and me agreeing with God to give these writings away for free. Just set me up as I learned more and more about giving and receiving for a great harvest. Like they used to say in the old school church you cain't beat God at giving. I ain't going to lie when I first started writing I had high hopes of selling the book. After dealing with so many scammers revolving around selling my book, and the feeling of anticipation I had growing in me to get this word into the soil (or the hearts of man.) The opportunity presented itself for me to give the books away for free and I said yes. After I said yes I had some peace. That's why I always win. I always come out on top. Like I am not bragging about it or anything it shouldn't have never taken place. Me using drugs, but how people used to talk disrespectfully to me I would be thinking to myself they don't have a clue as to who they are talking to. Although I didn't know in detail who I was and all I encompassed. I did know however

1 Peter 2:9 says, "But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light." I knew I was royalty in camouflage. Just as David was a shepherd of sheep and an errand boy, up until the time he wasn't. Then it was King David. This is how God chooses the foolish things of the world to confound the wise. This is why you didn't hear of King David in conflict when His brothers would disrespect Him He knew for 1 just don't put your hands on me and for 2 that He was Royalty. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. (Ezekiel 36:26 King James Version) I have to be honest, it is just now being unveiled to me this is what the Lord accomplished in me when I left school in 2019. It's kind of like when you are gutting a house, to remodel it. I vaguely remember the Lord was trying to get me to understand it wasn't the fact that I was trying to get a degree, but rather I was trying to start my new life by going around the most important part, the foundation. This is not to say that I am about to pick back up and go to school. I mean I landed where I landed. I found out what I was made of in doing things God's way. I never knew this man was in me. I didn't know that I was as good as others and better than most. I was filled with shame even before the drugs. I didn't deserve that. What the enemy plagued me with. The shame came from practicing legalism. The enemy trying to convince me of the law. For sure my parents believed in Jesus, for sure they practiced faith in Jesus and saved by grace. It was me in my own little secluded world; the enemy hemmed me up, and convinced me of the law. Without any influence from my parents, it was the enemy who did that to me. A lot of people who are starting to live life as adults start working on their lives without building upon the foundation. They start school or start working full time jobs without even knowing anything about a foundation. They are even Christians who start out going to school and their careers without having a clue as to what they are doing it for. All they know is this is just the next phase to me growing up. That is what I did when I received my high school diploma (at the age of 43). I was so excited that I received it. After doing fairly well in those classes motivated me to keep going. So with my head in the sand I went to college. Still without a clue as to who I was. This is a problem because when trouble came and trials rose. I was ill equipped “ Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.” (Mathew 7: 24-25 KJV) So to start life; living as an adult don't make the same mistake I made and start with just the desire and excitement of doing a new thing. Don't put the carriage before the horse. And I can say these things without embarrassment because it could have happened to anybody. It was a learning experience. Not just that but I got something out of it. It was definitely life changing. So today after the “ falling down of my house” I have learned to build everything I do upon and revolving around the rock. Jesus Christ. And the foundation in everyone's life is revolving around the heart of man because our treasure is where our heart is. That is what will motivate us. It is the reason why our feet hit the floor in the morning. It is the reason why we don't hit the snooze button on our alarm clocks on our phones. It is what drives us. This is where the enemy will try and get in on the mix. He wants the love of money on our hearts. While God wants the love of God upon our hearts. “ And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.” (Romans 5:5 KJV) as Ezekiel points out God would give us a new heart and put a new spirit in us. (Ezekiel 36:26) The reason God has me sharing these things with you is because you are important to Him and He wants you to succeed. Well if you start out with this system, you have a promise you will succeed. Look at that confidence you’d be able to walk around the campus with, “ I have the promise of God in me” head up chest out making good eye contact. You’re batting a thousand. You have a promise that whatever this semester is going to bring it will not defeat you. And if I am in this classroom with this foundation. It is a fact you’re going to graduate. Same thing with jobs, the scripture says if the foundation is destroyed what shall the righteous do? Because your driving force is no longer the love of mammon. Rather the Love of God. what you are doing is eternal. You are there fulfilling destiny not to make money. Money comes from God. He is your source, your provider, he uses your job to reward you for your service where He has you stationed at. You are planted there by God. it is a guarantee that you will have good success across the board, and He will make your way prosperous. The bible says “ The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly” (John 10:10 KJV) The reason we live life and pursue dreams and goals is to be happy, right? Happiness comes not from money and fine dining, shopping sprees and things of this sort (although there is nothing wrong with those things and they can be fun.) the bible says “ For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. ” (Romans 14:17 KJV) I need to already know that I am somebody and more than that I need to know who exactly it is that I am. I don't want to subconsciously get lost in obsessively doing things to make me somebody. If you are going to school to become a doctor, you are not going for them to make you a doctor but for them to confirm you were right in believing that you were gifted to be a doctor. This is one of the things that can cause your house to fall in tough times. Is when I am distracted and involved in building my name into who I want to be. Rather it is because I know who I am that can make me a success at achieving and obtaining things. Now no one can tell you who you are.

However there are vultures who prey upon people who do not know who they are in order to control and manipulate you into being what they want you to be, to fit their agenda. It's only when your life is about Jesus Christ can you prosper God's way. Now this doesn't mean you are going to, or have to stop what you want to do in life for the Kingdom of God to become a preacher or anything like that, it only means you have a guarantee that you will prosper. We are not talking about going to church here, we are talking about how to build your life in a way that will give you a fighting chance, headed out the gate. The foundation is the most important. To be built upon the Rock is when God will give you a determination and a bull dog like faith that you will of a certainty hit your target. The foundation is the basics. It is the simplicity of living life. What kind of a person do you want to be? Today, not when you finish school or get a lot of money or something like that. There are a lot of people who start things and don't finish, is that

who you want to be? It takes work to become the kind of person who has the it factor. Luckily when your foundation is built upon the Rock, He has done all the work for you and me. So, how do I obtain this work to become successful? I mean because it is fine and good that He (Jesus Christ) has done all of the work, but how does that benefit us? It is because that is the whole idea of what having a new heart and a new spirit benefits us. Everybody knows our treasure is where our heart is. It is because supping at the communion element table gives us a new heart. One that is compatible with the holy spirit. These are all things you would want to do first. Supping at the communion element table rids our hearts of all the shiesty things we have done in our lives. Supping at the communion element table brings to the surface things we need to repent and ask Him for forgiveness of. This makes way for Him to pour His love down into our hearts. Because of the things we had aligned ourselves with in our lives do have the potential to rise up right in the middle of you being built new and say “ naw we ain't going in that direction we gonna go in the direction I want to go in.” They make a lot of noise and they cause a big old ruckus. When we sup at the communion element table the bread and the wine drive these enemies into the sea. These are simple things we need to do receiving communion. And even though He brings things to the surface for us to deal with. It is not all at one time. “ His burden is easy and His yoke is light “ the things I am sharing with you are not burdensome they are things we would do as believers anyway. Only now you know a for sure way to have a new life, a successful life. This is the order of a man's life anyway everything is to revolve around Jesus. The communion elements reveal generational curses running throughout your family, strongholds and soul ties.

Who wouldn't want to be free of these things. And then by the time you look up you have a little bit more integrity, a little bit more character. This is when you will be able to have things without them having you. This will make it easier to hear the Holy Spirit. You will look up and be so amazed at the progress you have made in just a little bit of time. It is just like how you go to church and hear anointed preaching, singing miracles signs and wonders. He gives us that anointing to reach our goals and dreams. You can take and put your name in scriptures like "he will give me good success and make my way prosperous." I always quoted things like this but it would never manifest. I told myself I am more than a conqueror but couldn't make good eye contact. I was building my house on other things than on the Rock. Are you doing things and not built upon the Rock? Just imagine how anointed the preaching is at your church and you having that kind of anointing upon you to do your job at work. These things are not restricted within the four walls of the church. We are free of works, so when you show up on your job you show up as an ambassador of Jesus Christ. If you are a part of the royal priesthood our supply comes down upon us from the Royal Priesthood.
